

QUALITYFRUIT 2016

Final Conference of the COST FA1106

The Final Annual Conference of the COST FA1106, was held in Porto, Portugal, October 6-8, 2016.

The conference provides a unique opportunity to mingle and share ideas with scientists involved in cutting-edge fleshy fruit research and to update the communittee on the new resources and tools becoming available especially those related to the two model fruit: tomato and grape.

📖 Abstract Book

Organizers

Mondher Bouzayen, INRA/INP, Toulouse, FR

Mario Pezzotti, University of Verona, IT

Jean-Marc Routaboul, INRA/INP, Toulouse, FR

Hernâni Gerós, University of Minho, PT #

Ana Cunha, University of Minho, PT

Susana Carvalho, University of Porto, PT

Jorge Queiroz, University of Porto, PT

Sara Amâncio, ISA, University of Lisbon, PT #

Ana Fortes, University of Lisbon, PT

Local organizers:

The image displays three logos for local organizers. On the left is the logo for the University of Lisbon, featuring a large black 'U' above the word 'LISBOA' and 'UNIVERSIDADE DE LISBOA' below. In the center is the logo for Universidade do Minho, consisting of a red square with a white stylized starburst symbol and the text 'Universidade do Minho' below. On the right is the logo for U. PORTO, with 'U.' in a black box and 'PORTO' in a white box.

This block contains logos for funding and participating institutions. On the left is the COST logo (European Cooperation in Science and Technology). Next to it is the European Union flag and the text 'COST is supported by the EU Framework Programme Horizon 2020'. Below these are four logos: U. PORTO (Faculdade de Ciências, Universidade do Porto), Universidade do Minho (Escola de Ciências), and CITAB (Centre for the Research and Technology of Agro-Environment and Biological Sciences).